Chapter XXXIV: Bamidbar (Num. 1:1-4:20)

Essay 2. The names "Sinai" and "Horeb" refer to the punishment of the nations

מִדְרָשׁ "וּיִדְבֵּר ה' אֶל־מֹשֶׁה בְּמִדְבַּר סִינִּי", זֶה שֶׁאָמַר הַכָּתוּב "מִשְׁפָּטֶךְ תְּהוֹם רַבְּה" אָמַר רַבִּי מֵאִיר מְשָׁל אֶת הַצִּדִּיקִים בְּדִירָתָם "בְּמִרְעֶה־טוֹב אֶרְעֶה אֹתָם", וְאֶת הָרְשָׁעִים בְּדִירָתָם "בְּיֹרָתָם "בְּמִרְעֶה־טוֹב אֶרְעֶה אֹתָם", וְאֶת הָרְשָׁעִים בְּדִירָתָם "בְּיֹרָתָם "בְּמִרְעֶה־טוֹב אֶרְעֶה אֹתָם", וְאֶת הָרְשָׁעִים בְּדִירָתָם "בְּיִרְתָם "נִיְדַבֵּר ה' אֶל־מֹשֶׁה בְּמִדְבֵּר סִינִּי" עִם פְּסוּק שְׁאֹוֹלָה" וְכוּ! "מָאִיר קְשָׁה לָמָה דְּוְקֵא הִמְשִׁילָם בְּדִירָתָם וּמַה "מִשְׁפָּטֶךְ תְּהוֹם רַבָּה" וְעִם דְּרָשׁ זֶה שֶׁל ר' מֵאִיר, וְעוֹד עַל גּוּף הַדְּרָשׁ שֶׁל ר' מֵאִיר קַשֶּׁה לָמָה דְּוְקֵא הִמְשִׁילָם בְּדִירָתָם וּמַה תּוֹעֶלֶת בְּזָה.

There is a Midrash (Num. Rabbah 1:1) on the verse, "The L-rd spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai . . ." (Num. 1:1). The Midrash states: "This is the meaning of what is written, 'Your justice is like the great deep' (Ps. 36:7). Rabbi Meir said: There is a parable that the righteous are in their dwelling and the wicked are in their dwelling. The righteous are in their dwelling, 'I will feed them in good grazing land' (Ezek. 34:14) and the wicked are in their dwelling, 'On the day it went down to Sheol, I caused a mourning, I closed the deep over it' (Ezek. 31:15)."

The world asks (1) what is the issue that connects the verse, "The L-rd spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai" with the verse, "Your justice is like the great deep," and (2) what connects the first verse with this explanation of Rabbi Meir. Also, on the whole of the explanation of Rabbi Meir, it is difficult to understand why he specifically made them rulers over their dwelling and what the benefit of that terminology is to us?

ּוְגֵשׁ לוֹמַר דְּאִיתָא בְּפֶּרֶק ט' דְּשַׁבָּת מַאי ״הַר סִינִי״? שֶׁיָּרְדָה שִׂנְאָה לְאוּמוֹת הָעוֹלֶם עָלָיו. אָמַר ר' יוֹסִי בְּר' חֲנִינָא חֲמִשָּׁה שֵׁמוֹת גַשׁ לוֹ מִדְבַּר צִין — שָׁנִצְטַוּוּ וְכוּ'. וּמָה שָׁמוֹ? ״חוֹרֵב״ שְׁמוֹ. וּפְלִיגָא דְּר' אֲבָהוּ, דְּאָמַר ״הַר סִינַי״ שְׁמוֹ. וְלָמָה נִקְרָא שְׁמוֹ "הַר חוֹרֵב"? שֶׁיָּרְדָה חוֹרְבָּה לְאוּמוֹת עָלָיו.

It can be said that it's brought in the ninth chapter of tractate Shabbat:

As Rav Chisda and Rabba, son of Rav Huna, both said: What [is the reason it is called] Mount Sinai [סִינֵי]? [Because it is] a mountain upon which hatred

[אַיָּבָּיִה] for the nations of the world descended [because they did not accept the Torah]. Rabbi Yosei, son of Rabbi Chanina, said: It has five names. (1) The Zin Wilderness, [because] the Jewish people were commanded [nitztavu] [יַּבְּיַטְוּוֹ in it; (2) the Kadesh Wilderness, [because] the Jewish people were sanctified [nitkadshu] [יַּבְּיִבְּיִיוּ in it; (3) The Kedemot Wilderness, [because the] ancient [keduma] [יַּבְּינַיִּהְ] [Torah, which preceded the world] was given in it; (4) The Paran Wilderness, [because] the Jewish people were fruitful [paru] [יַּבְיוּ j and multiplied in it; (5) the Sinai Wilderness, [because] hatred descended upon the nations of the world on it [on the mountain on which the Jewish people received the Torah]. And what is [the mountain's true] name? Horeb [הוֹרֶבַּה] is its name. And that disputes [the opinion of] Rabbi Abbahu, as he said: Mount Sinai is its name. And why [according to Rabbi Yosei] is it called Mount Horeb? [Because] destruction [churba] [π̄τַבָּה] of the nations of the world descended upon it.

- Shabbat 89a-89b

וְהָקְשָׁה הָרי"ף שָׁם מַאי בֵּינַיְיהוּ? לִדְרוֹשׁ הַר סִינִי שְׁמוֹ, וְלָמָה נִקְרָא שְׁמוֹ הַר חוֹרֲבּ, שֶׁיֶּרְדָה חוֹרְבָּה לְאוּמוֹת, אוֹ לוֹמֵר הַר חוֹרֵב שְׁמוֹ, וְלָמָּה נִקְרָא הַר סִינִי, שֶׁיָּרְדָה שִׂנְאָה לְאוּמוֹת. וְעוֹד דְּנֵימָא מַרְנִיְיהוּ הַר סִינִי עַל שֶׁיָּרְדָה שִׁנְאָה, וְהַר חוֹרֵב עַל שֶׁיּרָדָה חוֹרְבָּה. וְמַירֵץ דְּיֶּרְדָה שִׁנְאָה הוּא שֶׁנְשְׁנְאוּ הָאוּמוֹת עַל שֶׁלֹּא קַבְּלוּ הַתּוֹרָה, וְיָּרְדָה חוֹרְבָּה הוּא שֶׁנְשְׁנְאוּ הָאוּמוֹת עַל שֶׁלֹא קַבְּלוּ הַתּוֹרָה, וְיָרְדָה חוֹרְבָּה הוּא שֶׁנְשְׁנְאוּ אָנָשְׁנְאוּ אֲכָל עַל זֶה, וּמַאן דְּאָמֵר חוֹרֵב שְׁמוֹ סְבִירָא לֵיה שֶׁנְשְׁנְאוּ אֲכָל שֵׁכֵן שֶׁנְשְׂנְאוּ, וּמַאן דְּאָמֵר חוֹרֵב שְׁמוֹ סְבִירָא לֵיה שֶׁנְשְׁנְאוּ אֲבָל חוֹרָב לֹא הָיָה, עכ"ל.

The Rif¹ asks there, what is the practical difference? To explain that Mount Sinai is its name; and then why is its name also called Mount Horeb—because of the destruction of the nations of the world? Or to say that Mount Horeb is its name; and then why is it also called Mount Sinai—because hatred for the nations descended upon it? Also, both are said, Mount Sinai because hatred descended, and Mount Horeb because destruction descended.

The solution is that the descent of hatred [came] because the nations were hated as they didn't receive the Torah, and the descent of the destruction [came] because judgment and punishment were imposed upon the nations for this. The one, i.e., Rabbi Abbahu, who says that Sinai is its name, is of the opinion that they were destroyed for not accepting the Torah and nevertheless that they were also hated for this refusal. The other one, i.e., Rabbi Yosei, who says Horeb is its name, is of the opinion that they were hated for this refusal but not destroyed.

¹ This is not the earlier and more famous "Rif" [Rabbi Isaac Alfasi (1013-1103)], but rather Rabbi Josiah ben Joseph Pinto (c. 1565–c. 1648), Syrian rabbi and preacher, a disciple of Rabbi Chaim Vital. His sefer, Me'or Enayim (Part One: Venice 1643; Part Two: Mantua 1743) was a commentary on Rabbi Jacob ibn Habib's "Ein Yaakov," a compilation of Aggadic material from the Talmud, and both parts are now commonly printed together with the Ein Yaakov. See Me'or Enayim (Venice 1643), page 62b.

ְּוְטַעַם מַחֲלוֹקֵת זָה יֵשׁ לוֹמֵר דְּתַּלְיָא בְּמַחֲלוֹקֵת אַחֵר, שֶׁכָּתַבְנוּ לְעֵיל בְּפָּרָשַׁת יִתְרוֹ עַל מַאֲמֶר הַנַּ"ל שֶׁאָם יִשְׂרָאֵל קְבְּלוּ אֶת הַתּוֹרָה בְּרָצוֹן, אָז אֵין הָאוּמוֹת יְכוֹלִים עוֹד לְהַחָזִיק בָּה, שֶׁהָרֵי מִתְּחִלָּה סָלְקוּ יְדֵיהֶם מְמֶנָּה וְיִשְׁרָאֵל זָכוּ בָּה מִיָּד הֵם לְבַדָּם. אֶלָּא שֶׁאִם יִשְׂרָאֵל לֹא קְבְּלוּהָ בְּרָצוֹן, אֶלָּא שֶׁאַחַר כָּךְ קִיְימוּהָ, עֲדַיִין הָיוּ יְכוֹלִים אַף הָאוּמוֹת לַחְזוֹר וְלֹזְכּוֹת בָּה. וּמַאן דְּאָמֵר שַׁיַרָדָה שִׁנָאָה, לְפִי שֵׁהָם קְבָּלוּהָ בְּרָצוֹן, וּמַאן דָּאָמֵר שֵׁיִרָדָה חוֹרְבָּה, מִפְּנֵי שֻׁלֹא חַזְרוּ לִזְכּוֹת בָּה וּלְקִייַמָה כְּמוֹ שֵׁעֲשׁוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל.

The reason for this disagreement is to say that it depends on another disagreement, for we wrote above for parshat Yitro (essay 16) on the article above that if Israel had accepted the Torah willingly, then the nations would no longer have been able to hold onto it, for from the start, they removed their hands from it, but Israel alone merited it immediately. Rather, if Israel had not received [the Torah] willingly, rather only afterward they fulfilled it, then the nations would still have been able to go back and merit it.

This refers to the dispute over whether Israel accepted the Torah willingly or not. On one hand, Shabbat 88a discusses the verse:

"'And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet G-d; and they stood at the lowermost part of the mount' (Ex. 19:17). Rabbi Avdimi bar Chama bar Chasa said: [the Jewish people actually stood beneath the mountain, and the verse] teaches that the Holy One, Blessed be He, overturned the mountain above them like a tub, and said to them: If you accept the Torah, excellent, and if not, there will be your burial. Rav Acha bar Yaakov said: From here is a substantial caveat to [the obligation to fulfill the] Torah." I.e., the suggestion is that Israel did not accept the Torah willingly.

On the other hand, at Ex. 24:7, we read that the people said, "All that the L-rd has spoken, we will do and we will hear it." I.e., the suggestion is that Israel accepted the Torah willingly, agreeing to fulfill the commandments even before hearing the details.

Regarding the one who says that hatred descended, Rabbi Yosei, it was because [Israel] received [the Torah] willingly. Thus, the nations didn't have a second chance to accept the Torah, and should be hated for their initial refusal, but not punished for it. Regarding the one who says that destruction descended, Rabbi Abbahu, it was because Israel did not receive the Torah willingly, and so the nations had a second chance to go back and claim it for themselves, but they didn't return to merit it and to fulfill it as Israel did. Thus, not only were they hated for their initial refusal to accept the Torah, but destruction descended because they didn't seize the second chance to claim the Torah for themselves.

ְנֶנְחְזֵי אָנֵן בִּשְׁלָמָא בְּכָל הַמְּקוֹמוֹת שֶׁהָיָה מְצֵנָה יִשְׂרָאֵל עַל אֵיזוֹ מִצְנָה נִיחָא לוֹמַר שֵׁם סִינֵי, שֶׁהָרִי בְּמַתָּן תּוֹרָה נִזְכֶּר זָה הַשֵּׁם שְׁלַ סִינֵי לְמָר כְּדָאִית לֵיהּ וּלְמָר כִּדְאִית לֵיהּ וּלְמָר בָּקְאִית לֵיהּ וּלְמָר בָּקְאִית לֵיהּ וּלְמָר בָּמָצְוֹת נָאֶמְרוּ בְּסִינֵי, אֲבָל בְּכָאן, שֻׁאֵינוֹ מְדַבּר בְּעִנְיָן שׁוּם מִצְנָה רַק כְּדֵי לְקַבֵּל מְנִין בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל בְּנִדְּאִי שֶׁיֵשׁ לוֹ לְהַזְּכִיר שֵׁם הָעֶצֶם דְּוְקָא. וּמְדְהָזְכִיר סִינֵי שְׁמַע מִינַה שֶׁיָּה הוּא הַשֵּׁם הָעֶצֶם הָעָצֶם לְּכִי שֶׁיָרְדָה חוֹרְבָּה לְאוּמוֹת שֶׁלֹא קְבְּלוּהָ מִמְּחַלָּה וְאַף לֹא חָזְרוּ לֹזְכּוֹת בָּה הָאְמִיי וְהַר חוֹרֵב הוּא שֵׁמַ הַתּוֹאַר, וְנִקְרָא כָּךְ לְפִי שֶׁיָּרְדָה חוֹרְבָּה לְאוּמוֹת שֶׁלֹא קְבְּלוּהָ מִמְּחַלָּה וְאַף לֹא חָזְרוּ לֹזְכּוֹת בָּה כְּמוֹ שֵּעְשׁוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל. וְזָה שֻׁאָמֵר הַכָּתוּב "וְהָגוֹיִם חָרב יָחַרְבוּ", שְׁמֵּי חַרְבָּנוֹת.

We see, granted, that every place that Israel was commanded on some mitzvah, it's fine to say the name of "Sinai," for the giving of the Torah is remembered by this name of "Sinai," whether according to one Sage, Rabbi Abbahu, as he holds, that Sinai was the mountain's actual name, or according to the other Sage[s], Rav Chisda and Rabba, son of Rav Huna, as [they hold], that it was called Sinai as an adjective, because hatred for the nations descended there, as they didn't receive the Torah.

All the commandments were said at Sinai, but here at Num. 1:1, "The L-rd spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai," where it does not speak about any commandment, but where Sinai is only mentioned in order to know where the children of Israel come from, then certainly it's appropriate to use the precise noun. From the mention of Sinai here, we learn from it that this is its true noun, and Mount Horeb is only an adjective, and it's called thus because the destruction descended to the nations that didn't receive [Torah] from the start and didn't even return to merit it as Israel did. This is what Scripture said, "For the nation or the kingdom that does not serve you shall perish; such nations shall be utterly destroyed [charov yecheravu] [הָרֹב יֶהֵרֶבוּן]" (Isaiah 60:12), two destructions, i.e., the root of charav [destruction] is duplicated for emphasis.

וּלְפִי זֶה שַׁפִּיר קַאָמָר הַמִּדְרָשׁ הָדָא הוּא דְּכְתִיב "מִשְׁפֶּטֶךְ תְּהוֹם רַבָּה", דְּמִדְהַזְּכִיר דַּוְקֵא שֵׁם סִינֵי יָלְפִינַן כְּמַאן דְּאָמַר שֶׁיָּרְדָה חוֹרָבָּה וְזָהוּ "מִשְׁפַּטֶךְ תִּהוֹם רַבָּה".

According to this, we have the answer to the first question. It's fine that this midrash says "This is the meaning of what is written, 'Your justice is like the great deep,' that from the fact that [Num. 1:1] specifically mentions the name "Sinai," we learn in accordance with the one who says that hatred and destruction descended upon the nations for their refusal of Torah, and this is the meaning of "Your justice is like the great deep."

וְאָתֵי שַׁפִּיר נָמֵי הַדְּרָשׁ שֶׁל רַבִּי מֵאִיר, שֶהָרֵי לָשׁוֹן חוֹרְבָּה שַׁיָּיךְ בְּכָתִּים וּבְדִירוֹת וְלֹא בָּאֲנָשִׁים וְהֵיכָן הִיא חוֹרְבָּה זוֹ וְהַלֹּא יֵשׁ לָהֶם בָּתִּים וַעֲיָירוֹת הַרְבֵּה? מִשׁוּם הָכִי קַאָמַר מָשֶׁל אֶת הָרְשָׁעִים בְּדִירָתָם כְּלוֹמֵר שֶׁיָבוֹא הַזְמֵן שֶׁיָּהִיוּ כָּל הַבָּתִּים שֶׁלָּהָם חוֹרְבָּה וְלֹא יִהְיָה לָהֶם אֶלָּא הַתִּהוֹם שֶׁיָדוּרוּ בּוֹ, וּלְהֵפֶךְ מָשֶׁל אֶת הַצַּדִּיקִים בְּדִירָתָם "אֲנִי אֶרְעָה" וְכוּי.

As for the second question, the explanation of Rabbi Meir is also fine, referencing the dwellings of the righteous and the wicked, for the language of "destruction" [chorba] [הוֹרְבָּה] is relevant to homes and dwellings and not to people, and where is this destruction, for don't [the nations] have many houses and towns?

Because of this, as it says, there's a parable of the wicked in their dwellings, as if to say that a time will come that all of their houses will be destroyed, and they will have nothing other than the deep in which they will dwell, and to the contrary, the parable of the righteous in their dwellings, "I will graze My flock, and I will let them lie down—declares the L-rd G-d" (Ezek. 34:15).
