Chapter XXXVIII: Korach (Num. 16:1-18:32)

Essay 5. Moses' treatment of Korach's people

סוֹטָה פֶּרֶק קְמָּא "רַב־לָכֶם בְּנֵי לֵנִי". אָמֵר רַבִּי לֵנִי: בְּ"רַב" בִּישֵׂר, בְּ"רַב" בִּישִׂרוּהוּ. בְּ"רַב" בִּישֵׂרוּהוּ. בְּ"רַב" בִּישִׂרוּהוּ. "רַב לָךְ". ע"כ. קַשֶׁה וְהַלֹּא בְּמַצֲשֶׂה לְרַח הָיָה הַדִּין עִם מֹשֶׁה רַבֵּנוּ ע"ה וְלָמָה נֶחְשֵׁב לוֹ לְמַצֲשֶׂה רַע מַה שַׁאָמֵר "רַב־לָכֶם" וְכוּי. שַׁאָמֵר "רַב־לָכֶם" וְכוּי.

In tractate Sotah, the first chapter, we find an analysis of the verses, "Do this: Take fire pans for yourself, Korach and all his band, and put fire in them and lay incense on them tomorrow before the L-rd. Then the candidate whom the L-rd chooses, he shall be the holy one. It's too much for you [rav lachem], sons of Levi!"

[The Mishna teaches:] Who, to us, [had] a greater [burial] than Moses, [as no one involved himself in his burial other than the Omnipresent Himself]. [The Gemara teaches: When Moses relates how G-d responded to him when denying his request to enter the Land of Israel, he states: "And the L-rd said to me: It's too much for you [rav lach]; [speak no more to Me of this matter]" (Deut. 3:26).

Rabbi Levi says: [Moses] proclaimed [to the Jewish people when rebuking them] with [the term] "rav," [and therefore] it was proclaimed to him with [the term] "rav" [that he would not enter the Land of Israel].

[What is this referring to?] He proclaimed with [the term] "rav" [when speaking with the congregation of Korach]: "It's too much for you [rav lachem], sons of Levi." It was proclaimed to him with [the term] "rav," [as G-d denied his request and said:] "It's too much for you [rav lach]."

- Sotah 13b

I.e., Moses used the term "rav" in rebuking the people at the time of Korach's rebellion, and then G-d used the term "rav" in telling Moses that he would not be entering the Land of Israel. Sotah suggests that the use of the same word means that G-d was upset with Moses for the manner in which he treated Korach's people. A difficulty is that: In the incident with Korach, wasn't the law with our teacher Moses, may he rest in peace? Why is this considered as a bad action on his part that he said "It's too much for you, sons of Levi"?

וּמִלְּכַד מַה שֶׁכָּתַב בְּזָה הַמְּגַלֶּה צְמוּקוֹת (אוֹפֶן רל"ט) עוֹד נְרְאֶה לוֹמֵר עִם מֵה שֻׁכָּתַב הַשַּׁ"ךְ עַל פָּסוּק "קְחוּ־לָכֶם מַחְתּוֹת", שָׁל שְׁבֹּד מַה שֻׁכָּתַב בְּזָה הַמְּגַלָּה צְמוּקוֹת שָׁל לֹדֶשׁ. וְכֵן "וּתְנוּ בָהַן אֲשׁ" דְּהַיְינוּ אֲשׁ שֶׁל הַמְּקְרִיב הַקְּטֹרֶת שֶׁל לְדָשׁ וְלֹא שֶׁל הָדְיוֹט מִכֶּל שֶׁכֵּן הַמַּקְרִיב הַקְטֹרֶת צָרִיךְ הָּיִוֹט, וּבֵין כָּךְ יַצְשׁוּ קַל וָחֹמֶר, אָם הַמַּחְתָּה וְהָאֵשׁ צְרִיכָה לְהִיוֹת שֶׁל לְדֶשׁ וְלֹא שֶׁל הָדְיוֹט מִכֶּל שֶׁכֵּן הַמַּחְרִיב הַקְּטֹרֶת צָרִיךְ שַׁיִּה בִיןֹט וְהָם הֵיוּ הַדִּיוֹטִים עכ"ל.

Apart from what the Megaleh Amukot wrote on this,² it also apparently can be said what the Shach³ wrote on the verse, "take fire pans for yourselves," that Moses said this to them in order that they would say that they didn't have sanctified firepans. I.e., he was giving them an opportunity to back down. Similarly, he said, "and put fire in them and lay incense on them," which was a specific reference to fire of the altar and not common fire. Through this, he hoped they would make an a fortiori argument, if the firepan and the fire need to be holy and not common, then even more so, the one who brings the incense needs to be holy and not a layman, and they were all laymen.

ְּוַעַל זֶה אָמֵר לָהָם "רַב־לָכֶם בְּנֵי לֵוִי" כְּלוֹמֵר דָּבָר גָּדוֹל אָמַרְתִּי לָכֶם שֻׁמִּבָּאוְ וְאֵילַךְ אַתֶּם כּּוֹשְׁעִים בְּעַצְמְכֶם, וְזֶהוּ דְּכְתִיב "אַת מַחְתּוֹת הַחַּטָּאִים הָאֵלֶּה בְּנַפְשׁׁתָם", דְּמַשְׁמָע שֶׁאָבְדוּ עַצְמָם לָדַעַת בְּמֶרֶד וּבְמֵעַל מַחְמֵת הַתְרָאָה זוֹ שֶׁל מֹשֶׁה. וּלְפִי מֵה שֶׁכְּתַבְנוּ לְעִיל בְּסָמוּךְ בְּשֵׁם הַיַּלְקוּט רְאוּבֵנִי שֶׁכְּשֶׁנָפַל מֹשֶׁה עַל פָּנְיו הֶרְאוּ לוֹ מָן הַשָּׁמֵיִם שֶׁקֹרַח אִי אֶפְשָׁר לוֹ לְהַנָּצֵל שֶׁכְּבָר נִגְזַר דִּינוֹ בְּשְׁרֵיכָה אָב לְּאַ לַתְּמִידוּ וְיוֹסִיפוּ בְּחֶטְאָם. אִם כֵּן לֹא הָיָה לוֹ לְמֹשֶׁה לִיתַן מִכְשׁוֹל לְפְנֵיהֶם, וְאַרְים שִׁרָּשֹׁאֲם פּוֹשְׁעִים וּמְזַיִרִם יוֹתָר מְמֵה שָׁהָיוּ עַד שַׁחַטְאוּ בְּנַפְשׁוֹתַם, וּבְזֶה לֹא עַשַׂה טוֹב.

Regarding this, he said to them, "It's too much for you, sons of Levi," as if to say, I have said something important to you, that from now on you are causing harm by yourselves. This is the meaning of what is written after their deaths, "[Remove] the fire pans of those who have sinned at the cost of their lives," that means that they lost themselves knowingly with revolt and treachery because of this warning of Moses that they ignored.

According to what we wrote above, essay 3, in the name of the Yalkut Re'uveini,⁵ that when Korach and his band approached Moses and he fell upon his face,⁶ he was shown from Heaven that it was impossible for Korach to be saved, as his judgment to be burned had already been decreed. However, it was possible for his band to be saved if they did not persist and add to their sin. If so, it was not for Moses to put a stumbling block in front of them, and to the contrary, he is said to have increased their sin by making them transgressors and intentional sinners more than what they had been before they sinned at the cost of their lives, and in this he did not do good.

וּלְפִיכָךְ בְּ"רַב" בִּישִּׂרוּהוּ שָׁאָמַר לוֹ "רַב לָךְּ", שָׁאַף עַל פִּי שָׁמֹשֶׁה וְאַהְרֹן שְׁנֵיהֶם חָטְאוּ בְּמֵי מְרִיבָה וּשְׁנֵיהֶם מֵתוּ בְּמִדְבָּר בְּישִׂרוּהוּ שָׁאָמַר לוֹ "רַב לָךְ", שָׁאַף עַל פִּי שָׁמֵע הַצִּיוּוּי מִפִּי הַמְּקוֹם וְגַם הוּא עָשָׁה הַמַּצְשֶׂה דְּכְתִיב "נַיַּךְ אָת־ בְּחָטְאוֹ שֶׁל מֹשֶׁה הָקְפִּיד וְאָמַר "שִׁמְעוּ־נָא הַמֹּרִים". וְכֵן פֵּרְשׁ רִשִּׁ"י עַל פָּסוּק "נַיִּקְצֹּף הַסְּלַע", וְאַדְרַבָּא הוּא גָּרִם לָאַהָרן שֶׁיָמוּת שֶׁהְרֵי מֹשֶׁה הִקְפִּיד וְאָמַר "שִׁמְעוּ־נָא הַמֹּרִים". וְכֵן פֵּרְשׁ רִשִּׁ"י עַל פָּסוּק "נַיִּקצֹף מֹשֶׁה לַכְלֵל כַּעַס, בָּא לְכְלֵל טָעוּת, וְכֵן אַתָּה מוֹצֵא "שִׁמְעוּ־נָא הַמֹּרִים" וְכוּ' עכ"ל. וְעַתָּה שֶׁכְּכָר מֵת אַהָּרוֹ בַּמִּדְבָּר הַלֹּא אֵין עוֹד מָקוֹם לְמֹשֶׁה לְהִתְּפֵּלֵל מִקְל וָחְמֶר, וְעַל זָה אָמֵר לוֹ "רַב לָךְּ".

Therefore, it was proclaimed to him with [the term] "rav," as [G-d] said to him: "It's too much for you [rav lach]," that he had merited enough in his life, but would not enter the Land of Israel. For even though Moses and Aaron, both of them, had sinned at the waters of Meribah, and the two of them died in the wilderness from this sin. With all of this, Moses' sin was greater than Aaron's, as he heard the command from the mouth of the Omnipresent and he committed the act, as it is written, "You and your brother Aaron take the rod and assemble the community, and before their very eyes order the rock to yield its water; thus you shall produce water for them from the rock and provide drink for the congregation and their beasts. . . And Moses raised his hand and struck the rock twice with his rod; out came copious water." I.e., G-d only told Moses to speak to the rock, and yet he struck the rock.

Also contrary to the thinking that Moses and Aaron's sin was equal in striking the rock, [Moses] caused Aaron to die, for Moses was particular and said, "Listen, you rebels, shall we get water for you out of this rock?" I.e., Moses also erred in angrily insulting the people. Thus Rashi explained on the verse, "'Moses became angry with the commanders of the army, the officers of thousands and the officers of hundreds, who had come back from the military campaign.' [Because Moses] fell into anger, he fell into error, and you also find when he said, 'Listen, you rebels,' it was through his anger that he made the mistake."

Now that Aaron has already died in the wilderness, there isn't any place for Moshe to pray for G-d to allow him to enter the Land. This is an a fortiori argument: Moses and Aaron both sinned, but Moses' sin was worse. As Aaron had already died and therefore wouldn't enter the Land of Israel, how could G-d allow Moses, whose sin had been greater, to enter the Land. For this reason, [G-d] said to him, "It's too much for you.

Alternatively, in a different way of analysis, the Shach mentioned above writes, "It's too much for you, sons of Levi," that this was a great sin for you considering your worth, for they were connected to G-d, and the Holy One, Blessed be He, is exacting with His pious ones to the degree of a hair's breadth. In other words, the reason I gave you this advice, by which you would surely die, is because you already deserve death according to your worth, that you are connected to G-d. Then, it was proclaimed to [Moses] with [the term] "rav," as Rashi explained that the Holy One, Blessed be He, is exacting with His pious ones, and [Moses] was punished with the same death. In other words, you brought the deaths of these people by your advice, with the reason that they already deserved death because of their worth, but the Holy One, Blessed be He, said to you, Moses, when you pleaded to enter the Land of Israel, "It's too much for you [rav lach], because of your [own] worth, you have sinned, and you are not able to enter the Land of Israel."
